16,000 Red Troops Find Selves Trapped As New Salla Battle Imminent

By HAROLD PETERS

British United Press Exclusive Cable to The Edmonton Bulletin.

COPENHAGEN, Jan. 2.—Press dispatches said today that 16,000 Russian troops have been cut off by the Finns on the Salla front, near the Arctic Circle, in a battle which may result in a greater Finnish triumph than the New Year's victory on the Suomussalmi front in the south. In a carefully planned and well-executed attack the Finns moved in on the Russians from the front and both flanks, forced the collapse of their right and left wings and succeeded in cutting off communications to the rear.

If Danish dispatches gave an accurate picture of the battle it appeared that the Russians were in danger of losing another entire army division, totalling normally 18,000 men. This was the size of the Russian force slaughtered by the Finns on the Suomussalmi front.

Dispatches said that in their newest attack the Finns were tightening their squeeze on the Russians, making it impossible for them to flee, and were said to be gunning any Russian troops that sought to make a break toward the frontier.

Newly-Arrived Russian Forces Fail To Stop Mannerheim Line

By WEBB MILLER

British United Press Exclusive Cable to The Edmonton Bulletin.

HELSINKI, Jan. 2.—Russian reinforcements, newly arrived on the Karelian Isthmus front, struck at the Finnish Mannerheim line today in sub-zero weather, but failed to obtain their objectives. More warmly clad, better equipped, younger and in every way better qualified than the original Russian forces on this front, the Russians hit the centre and west end of the Mannerheim line in the 26th day of their effort to smash through and end the war. Finnish reports from the front said the cold was so intense that many of the Russian wounded found to death in no-man's land before they could be picked up.

Lake Kianta Proves Russ Death Lure

By HUBERT UEXKELL

British United Press Exclusive Cable to The Edmonton Bulletin.

WITH THE FINNISH ARMY AT ROVANIEMI, Finland, Jan. 2.—The story of the Lake Kianta machine trap, in which a relatively small force of determined Finnish troops caught a Russian division of 18,000 men and destroyed it, was told me in Rovaniemi today.

The Finns could never, by direct attack, have challenged successfully the overwhelmingly larger Russian 163rd division to which they were opposed, but aided by 40 below temperatures when the Finns made their final attack, I was informed the Russians could hardly lift their rifles.

The Russians had got themselves tangled up in Y-shaped Lake Kianta and were scattered over four points on the lake. Finns, ski troops, with machine guns, cut off their retreat while the main Finnish body took their positions.

With the 18,000 Russians hemmed in machine guns and the Finns waited 10 days for the bitter cold and starvation to do its work. On the 11th day they attacked.

The Russians resisted for three days. On the fourth it was over. Several thousand Russians were already dead, and a Finnish ski patrol and the inescapable cold accounted for four remaining remnants when they attempted to flee in panic.

The King signed a proclamation ordering all men who on Jan. 1, 1940 had reached the age of 18, but not reached the age of 28, to be sent for military service when directed.

It was expected that all classes up to the 27-year-olds would be absorbed into the colors by the end of 1940, which would give Britain 3,000,000 men under arms.

Only a few Canadians resident in Britain will be affected by the call.

FATHER TIME DEPARTS AGAIN
Old Father Time, showing his age, and bearing the scars of a rather turbulent 1939, wrapped his flapping cloak around his spindly shanks on New Year's Eve, and, after a long and arduous journey, left the arena for good and coming 1940. The Bulletin's cameraman caught the "change-over" at the Madisons at the height of the New Year's Eve frolic there, just as Father Time, portrayed by Harry Shoemist, played out of the picture and made way for the winsome little lady who was Miss 1940. She is Marlene Wylie, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Z. Wylie of 11865 105 avenue, a star of the Kinsley School of Dancing.

Christmas Is Observed At Sea by Canuck Army En Route to England

By SAM ROBERTSON
Canadian Press Staff Writer
AT A UNITED KINGDOM PORT, Jan. 2.—Christmas, 1939 is being observed in the memories of Canadian troops.

Every consideration and comfort possible on a ship sailing the seas were the shipping companies, the second contingent, but Christmas is a day when everyone wants to be in the circle of his family and there is no substitute for that.

The stout little ship on which we were travelling, the Holy Day, a company from Montreal and an assortment of auxiliary services had decorated Christmas trees, and Christmas dinner, midnight mass and church services for other faiths.

KEEP NINETY OCCUPIED
It was the same on other ships of the convoy that carried the second contingent of the Canadian Active Service Corps' first contingent, and they had to do their best to keep the troops occupied.

The night before Christmas and right through the day the ship's captain and crew joined military officers in "trying to keep the troops occupied by other faiths."

After completing a round of the ship, we were taken to a simple story that showed how successful were the minds of...

"Many of them claimed to be sick and were just lying down," said the right barge, he said, "Sensational doesn't mean it's not true."

Ship's officers forbade gambling and other games for the night, but friendly sales started in a major cabin Christmas eve and there were more than a few games of cards.

The officer who organized the game was a Canadian, and he was very friendly and helpful to the troops.

THINKS OF CHILDREN
"I've never been away from my children since Christmas," said the officer, a rough mountain of a man who couldn't be expected to have tender thoughts of "little ones."

His wife, who was with him, said, "It's more than I can stand, and I think the little ones might get me away from myself."

Somebody else's wife said, "I've never been away from my children since Christmas," said the officer, a rough mountain of a man who couldn't be expected to have tender thoughts of "little ones."

Here Are Simple Tips
For Charming Letters

By MRS. GAYNOR MADDOX

A cup of tea or coffee, or a glass of milk and a bit of something sweet, the soft hours of the day will refresh the spirit after the excitement of the holiday. Here are a few easy suggestions:

SMALL SPONGE CAKE

Two egg yolks, 1-3 cup sugar, grated rind of half a lemon, 2 teaspoons lemon juice, 2 egg whites, pinch salt, 1-3 cup flour.
Beat egg yolks until thick and lemony. Add sugar, grated lemon rind and juice. Continue to beat. Add salt and egg whites and beat until stiff but not dry. Fold egg whites into the egg yolk mixture. Then fold in the sifted flour. Pour into small buttered cup cake cases and bake about 15 minutes in moderate oven.

PEANUT BUTTER BROWNIES

Four tablespoons butter, 1/4 cup peanut butter, 2 eggs, 1 cup sugar, 1/4 cup sifted flour, 1/4 teaspoon baking soda, 1/4 teaspoon salt, 2 squares unsweetened chocolate.
Cream butter and peanut butter together and add sugar. Add beating eggs, one at a time, and flour which has been sifted with baking powder and salt. Spread in a shallow buttered pan. Bake in moderate oven (350 deg. F.) for about 30 minutes. Cut into squares.

Try This Variation on Cinnamon Roll

Spread a layer of butter on a side with a mixture of creamed butter, brown sugar and cinnamon. Roll up into small strips before being spread with the butter mixture.

Tomorrow's Menu

BREAKFAST: Sliced ham in brown sauce, fried mushrooms, fried wheat cakes, crisp bacon, apricot, coffee, milk.
LUNCHEON: Italian spaghetti with tomato-meat sauce, Italian salad, fruit, small sponge cake.

DINNER: Baked pork chops, browned sweet potatoes, buttered green peas, cranberry-apple jelly, celery, cream, cheese, coffee, milk.

New Year's in City Tumultuous Event: Parade Is Feature

"Happy New Year's." These three words, spoken, shouted and sung by thousands as clocks struck 12 and bells clanged midnight on Sunday epitomized Edmonton's celebration of arrival of the New Year. Baby Year 1940 received a vociferous—tumultuous—welcome amid a general round of rejoicing such as has been seldom equaled here.

Retires

who has retired from the sheriff's office at the Edmonton court house after 18 years' service. He is leaving Tuesday for Vancouver where he will join Mrs. Parker.

PARKER RETIRES AFTER 18 YEARS AT COURT HOUSE

Eighteen years of service at Edmonton court house ended Saturday afternoon when Ernest C. Parker of the sheriff's office bade farewell to his fellow workers prior to leaving for the Pacific coast where he will reside in future. Mr. Parker, who came to Edmonton with his father and mother, Somerset, Eng., in 1910, joined the staff of the sheriff's office in 1912. Last week he was the recipient of a pipe from members of the Edmonton Cricket League. The pipe was presented by George S. Bagot, president of the league, with expressions of regret that Mr. Parker was leaving for the coast, and with best wishes for his prosperity and good health in the future.

Saturday members of the court house staff presented him with a pipe and lighter as a token of the esteem in which he was held. Mr. Parker will leave by motor for Vancouver on Tuesday to join Mrs. Parker.

First showing in Edmonton of the French documentary film "Sommes-nous Défendus?" ("Are We Defended?") is being sponsored by the Comité Franco-Canadien. This film, featuring the famed Maginot line fortifications, army, navy and air force of France, will be shown in the Jasper room of the Macdonald hotel on Thursday at 8 p.m. to members and friends of Franco-Canada.

The Inquiring Reporter

THE QUESTION
Miss Evelyn Karachuk, 1909 99 street, wants to know "If you had a chance to travel into any part of the world, where would you go? And why?" The question brings one dollar to Mrs. Karachuk.

THE ANSWERS
BETTY CHORLEY, stenographer, 1014 10th street, says she would like to go to the moon. She would like to go to the moon. She would like to go to the moon.

MURIEL WILSON, clerk, Oh, one round the world would do, she thinks.

PETER MAULAY, funny how people never get tired of making plans of visiting all over the place. My idea of a good trip is to go to the Canadian Rockies, taking months to do it.

MARION WILSON, stenographer, A tour of the length and breadth of this continent would satisfy me for a while.

INQUIRING REPORTER: All I want is a nice long rest. Where I go I don't matter, just so long as I get it.

TO-FOOT FINDER: London's nine and one-half million people would require farm lands slightly bigger than the whole of Ireland.

Preparations are well advanced for the 1940 annual convention of the Alberta Social Credit League which will be held at Calgary on January 18 and 19, according to J. A. Maurice, general secretary. Each provincial constituency will be entitled to send three delegates to the convention against one in previous years, while this city and Calgary will be entitled to send six each. In addition cabinet ministers and others are entitled to attend.

Home Building And Tax Payments Are Better During 1939

Tax collections showed a proportionate increase in 1939 over the previous year, with a higher percentage of the levy collected, building permits for new dwellings went up and sales of city-owned land were higher, it was noted in year-end statistics obtained Tuesday at City Hall.

Collection of taxes for 1939, including current and arrears, was $1,552,000 or $71,000 less than the 1938 collections which were $1,623,000.

The city levy for 1939, however, was $1,500,000 less than for 1938, being $3,564,000 as against $5,064,000.

The collections for 1939 included $2,027,000 current taxes and $525,000 arrears, while in 1938 they were $2,025,000 current and $525,000 arrears.

In 1939 the city collected 107 per cent of the current levy, but this proportion will be increased for 1940.

Construction of new dwellings in 1939, as shown by building permits, was a million dollars over the figures for the previous year, being $1,000,000 as against $200,000.

Due to 1939 being an unusual year for commercial building, the total of building permits in 1939 was better than that of the previous year, being $1,000,000 as against $200,000.

CITY LAND SALES
Sales of city-owned land in 1939 showed an increase of $15,000 over the figures for the previous year, it was reported Tuesday by the city land department. In the year just ended the city sold $131,146 worth of land, compared with $116,095 worth the year before.

Clearing house figures for the past year showed an increase close to a million dollars over the figures for the previous year. For 1939, figures were $201,977,000, while for the previous year they were $201,003,000.

Customs collections through the Edmonton port for the first year ending December 31, 1938 show an increase of $58,616 compared with the corresponding period 1938, collections in 1938 amounted to $2,241,230 and in 1938 $2,182,614.

City police collected seven million dollars in fines during the month of December. Five of these were due to natural causes and two were suicides, police said. There were no inquests.
